

ADSNA

AUSTRALIAN DAY SURGERY
NURSES ASSOCIATION

2008-2009

2008 - 2009

Member States

- Western Australia
- Queensland
- South Australia
- Tasmania
- Victoria
- New South Wales

2008 - 2009

Membership: 894

- WA 79
- QLD 227
- SA 69
- TAS 48
- NSW 175
- VIC 296

NB: numbers as of May 1st 2009 and subject to change

2008 - 2009

ADSNA is an affiliate member (and only nursing body) of the International Association of Ambulatory Surgery
(I.A.A.S)

2008 - 2009

ADSNA has representation on the
Australian Day Surgery Council
(ADSC) including the Executive

2008 - 2009

- Wendy Adams (ADSNA President)
- Maralyn Masters (Vice President & ACHS Rep)
- Michelle Birks (ANF rep)
- Celia Leary (RCNA)

2008 - 2009

Incorporated Association

with 2 Tier structure

- Management committee
- Council

2008 - 2009

Management committee

1 representative from each state committee

Each state has 1 vote

Term of office is 2 years

2008 - 2009

Council

2 reps from each state committee

Councillor

(voting rights at all meetings)

State representative

(voting rights at all General meetings)

Term of office is 2 years

2008 - 2009

Current Council (and their Portfolios)

2008 - 2009

Western Australia

Penny Reed

(Marketing)

Alison Gateley

(Website)

2008 - 2009

Queensland

Jo Tier

(Secretary)

Michelle Hambridge

(Minute Secretary)

2008 - 2009

South Australia

Maralyn Masters

(Treasurer)

Janis Weston

(assists with collecting Journal articles)

2008 - 2009

Tasmania

Fiona Svamvur

Debbie McQueen

(assists with collecting Journal articles)

Australian Day Surgery Nurses Association

Tasmania

2008 - 2009

Victoria

Wendy Adams
(President)

Darren Johnston
(Journal Editor)

Day Surgery Special Interest Group

Victoria

2008 - 2009

New South Wales

Lillian Stibbs & Patricia Goh

(Assistant Journal Editors)

Day Surgery Nurses Association Inc. NSW

2008 - 2009

Co-opted assistants to the Council

2008 - 2009

Linda Evans (Vic)

Assistant to the Treasurer
Distributes Guidelines and IAAS Books
Maintains data base

2008 - 2009

Julianne Thynne (NSW)

ADSNA representative on the
AS 4187 committee

2008 - 2009

How are we funded?

- Annual Capitation fee per state
- Proceeds from Guideline sales
- Proceeds from the IAAS book

2008 - 2009

How often do we meet?

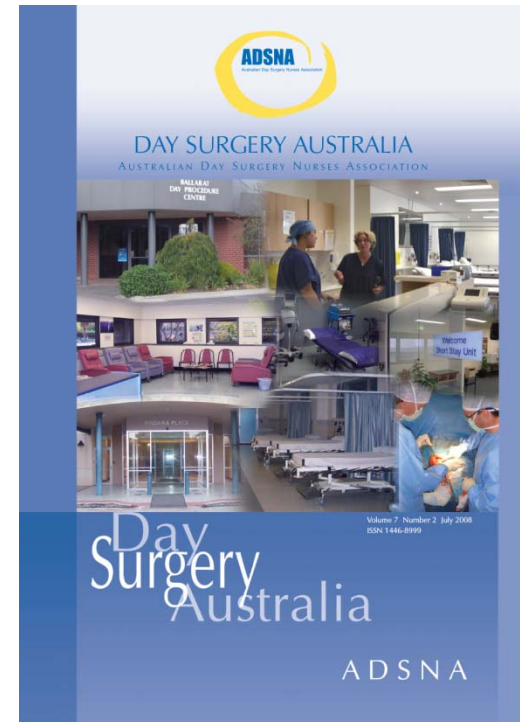

- Management and Council meetings are held over 3-4 weekends per year
- The General Meeting (AGM) is held in November each year

2008 - 2009

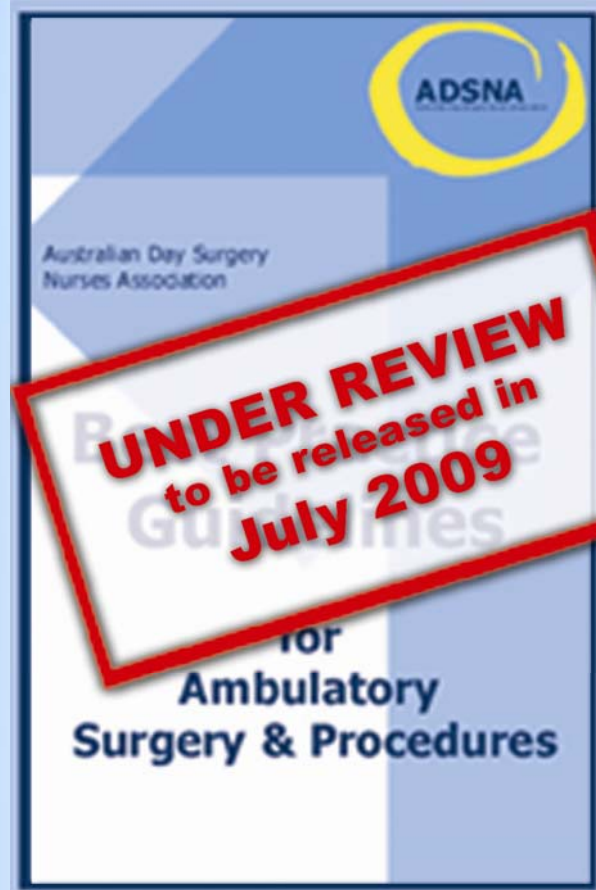

Journal

- 3 per year
- Peer reviewed
- Legal corner
- Journal subscriptions to libraries and hospitals
 - ✓ New Zealand: 8
 - ✓ Saudi Arabia: 1
 - ✓ America: 1
 - ✓ Australia: 6

2008 - 2009

The Australian Day Surgery Nurses Association has the following Best Practice Guidelines for:

- Patient Education (2005)
- Discharge Planning (Reviewed 2005)
- Visiting Day Surgery Specific Complications (2005)
- Readmission procedures for Day Surgery Patients
- The Care of Patient with the Day Surgery Wounds (2003)
- Staying Safe Day Surgery Unit (2004)
- Paediatric Day Surgery (2006)

New guideline coming soon for the Care of Large Patients

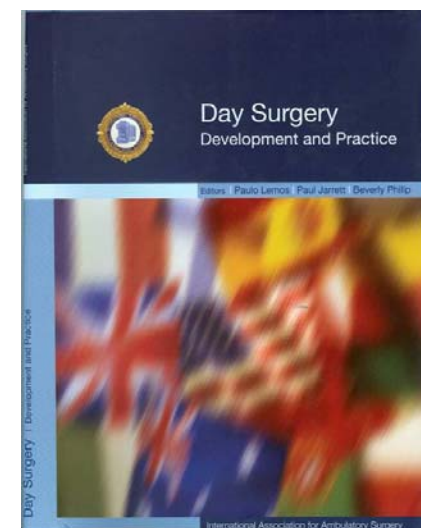

Order forms available at www.adsna.info or email guidelines@adsna.info

2008 - 2009

Day Surgery Development and Practice

- Book written and published by members of the IAAS and distributed through ADSNA only 2008 - 2009

CNE points

- Member states are applying for CNE points for their education sessions

2008 - 2009

Website

- All states utilising website for contacts and membership forms etc
- Increasing number of hits every month
- Links from many other sites

I.A.A.S.

8th International Congress on Ambulatory Surgery

The Destiny of Day Surgery

• Brisbane, Queensland, Australia 3 – 6 July 2009

www.iaascongress2009.org

2008 - 2009

How can the Member states assist?

Support your committee

2008 - 2009

- Be financialJoin the committee!!!
- Encourage new members from your workplacesJoin the committee!!!
- Join the committee!!!
- Increase the number of articles, photos and questions for the legal corner in the Journal from members from your state

2008 - 2009

Support your committee

- Involve members from other states in state conferences as speakers and delegates
- Continue to form or encourage alliances with other special interest groups
- Promote nursing representation of Day Surgery throughout all states on Health Department Committees and Projects

2008 - 2009

For the latest information

Log on to our web site

www.adsna.info